NEC Offers Zero Percent Financing on Select Enterprise Communications Systems

NEC Financial Services announces limited time 60-month zero percent lease options on UNIVERGE® SV8000 Series and UX5000 systems

Saddle Brook, NJ – April 15, 2009 – NEC Financial Services, LLC, a firm dedicated to providing tailored financing and leasing services to customers throughout the United States, announces the launch of a 60-month zero percent true lease promotion subject to offer terms and conditions for NEC UNIVERGE® SV8000 Series communication servers and UX5000 phone systems installed by authorized NEC Unified Solutions dealers. The limited time offer enables qualifying commercial customers to affordably upgrade their communication infrastructure to a standard that offers advanced high performance applications and scalability for growth.

“If companies are to have a competitive edge in this down economy, being ahead of the competition is essential,” said Herschel Salan, vice president and general manager of NEC Financial Services, LLC. “At no time has keeping the lines of communication open been so important. That is why we are pleased to be able to provide this special leasing arrangement. It empowers companies to empower their workforce with the advanced tools necessary to communicate seamlessly.”
